CHILDREN'S FUNERALS

No personal charges or expenses are made in connection with the funeral of children of junior-school age other than the cost of the coffin and provision of transport, if requested by the family.

~~~~~

Families are always encouraged to use their own transport in order to help keep expenses as low as possible.

These charges, together with any other fees and expenses, which have to be met on behalf of the family, will be made clear and agreed before final instructions are taken.
